At the Augmented Litany, for the Belarusian Land

O Master, Lover of mankind, King of the ages and Bestower of good things, Who didst destroy the middle wall of enmity and grant peace to the human race: do Thou now also send down peace into the hearts of the people of Belarus; instill in all the fear of Thee and confirm in them longsuffering and love one for another; extinguish every dispute and banish all temptation to disagreement, we pray Thee, quickly hearken and graciously have mercy.
